

Clipper Adventurer • Polar Adventure Ship • Passenger Numbers: 122

Originally built in 1975, she underwent a $13 million conversion in 1998. She has a proud reputation as a well-appointed and elegant expedition ship. Clipper Adventurer is equipped with Zodiacs for shore landings and ocean level cruising, yet offers fine dining, and cabins with exterior views and facilities en suite.

On board

- Expert naturalists and historians
- 61 cabins, all with exterior views
- All cabins have en suite facilities and individual temperature controls
- Captain's Deck and Bridge have exterior access with outside seating
- Multipurpose lounge and presentation room
- Window-lined dining room with unreserved seating
- 2 bars
- Polar library
- Ship-to-shore communications via satellite
- Email and wireless Internet access
- Clinic with licensed doctor
- Exercise room
- Massage therapist

Ship Facts:

- Passengers: 122 • Staff & Crew: 72
- Length: 100.1m • Breadth: 16.31m • Draught: 4.5m
- Lifeboats: 4 fully enclosed, capacity of 200
- Propulsion: 2 MAN B&W diesel engines rated approx. 2,640 SHP each; 500 HP bowthruster; controllable pitch propellers
- Cruising Speed: 12 knots in open water
- Ice Class: 1A • Registered: Bahamas

- Triple 2 lower berths • porthole. Private facilities.
- Lower Deck Twin 2 lower berths • porthole. Private facilities.
- Main Deck Twin Porthole 2 lower berths • porthole. Private facilities.
- Main Deck Twin Window 2 lower berths • 2 windows. Private facilities.
- Superior 2 lower berths • windows. Private facilities.
- Deluxe 2 lower berths • windows. Private facilities.
- Suite 2 lower berths • windows • bathtub in 403 • shower in the remainder. Private facilities.

Twin cabin, window

Clipper Adventurer & Lyubov Orlova

These sister ships have the same DNA, but are slightly different. Clipper Adventurer is elegant and sophisticated. Lyubov Orlova is sporty, providing opportunities to camp and kayak in the Antarctic Peninsula.

